ought to be done. Well, I don't know what ought to be done for the other senators, but I know what ought to be done by me. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, your light is next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I hope that there is some discomfort when I discuss these issues because it should teach you something. If you are made uncomfortable by what I say, how much worse and more devastating is it to the children who are mistreated and to the parents of those children? They have no place to turn. This is probably some of what the OPS had in mind when they wanted the Department of Education, the U.S. Department of Education, to cancel that community meeting. This is some of what would have come out. The legislators would have seen it. But what they don't understand is that the legislators don't care. You know why they don't care? Because it involves black children. The legislator does not care about black children; it does not care about black people, and it's up to me to make that point clear. I cannot make the Legislature do the right thing, but I'm going to make it as hard as possible for you to do the wrong thing. And I'm going to pillory the Legislature and I'm going to explain to the people in my community how difficult my job is; how hard it is to come down here and work with these white people who are so totally insensitive; things they would not tolerate for their children. You know why I know they won't tolerate it? Because I hear some of the gripes that happen on this floor. We passed a...we moved a bill Senator Aguilar wanted that's just going to let some consideration, in terms of funding, follow students, and we all thought that's the just thing to do and we did it. I'm talking about the situation where children are parcelled out into grades other than the one they belong in and the Legislature doesn't care. So why should I care about taking some of your time? You are stealing the educational opportunity from my children. The reason I say "you", because you want to give more money to OPS to continue doing what they're doing. They can tell you what they're doing and tell you that what I've said on the floor is true and correct, and the Legislature chooses to do nothing. Well, I'm
